Complaint Type

From my conversation with the police I learned that the type of complaint is one of the most important details, which is why I placed it first

Quantity of Complaints

This filter shows how many complaints have been reported at a specific address, making it easier to identify recurring issues

Time Field

Next is the time of day the noise was reported helping users understand when complaints occur

Status

Lastly, users can filter between open and closed complaints to better understand how cases are being handled.